FINANCIAL CERTIFICATE, continued

Sample letter from a financial institution to accompany the "Financial Certificate" form

A separate letter must come from EACH person verifying money to be used for study at Goizueta Business School.

All letters must be in English OR there must be an authorized English translation accompanying a letter in another language.

Do not use this sample as a form! This is for example only; a letter should be written in this format.

To Whom It May Concern:

I certify that Mr./Ms. ____________________, is a good customer of ____________________________ [getter's name] [name of bank]

and has on deposit in excess of _________[whatever figure is relevant] in account number:

___________________________________

*Mr./Ms._____________________________ certifies that this money will be used to pay for the business studies of his/her/him/her (son/daughter, self, etc.) ____________________________

[name of student] at the Goizueta Business School, Atlanta, Georgia in the 2008/2009 academic year.

Sincerely,

________________________

________________________

(name and title of bank official)

*Note: If the bank official will not include this paragraph, then the person providing the money must write a separate letter saying "I plan to use $__________in account number _________________________ in ____________________________ bank to pay for the business studies of my (son/daughter, self, etc.) at Goizueta Business School, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia in the 2008/2009 academic year.