* As a Goizueta Business School exchange student, you may take courses from two faculties: Goizueta Business School or Emory College of Arts and Sciences. Since your home faculty will be the business school, you must take at least 2 Goizueta courses. If you wish, you may take up to 2 Emory College courses (please note that this includes economics subjects).

+ If your first primary course is not available, we will attempt to register you in your first alternative choice instead. Choosing alternative courses is extremely important, in case one of your primary choices is fully booked or you have a timetable conflict.
