ACCOMMODATION DETAILS

OFF CAMPUS HOUSING
Short-term, furnished leases are not common, but are available at some apartment complexes. Many exchange students sublet, negotiate rates through Airbnb or use the Off Campus Housing Finder or Emory Housing group on Facebook. The cost for a room for fall 2023 was about $1300 per person per month.

HEALTH INSURANCE
Health insurance is mandatory for all exchange visitors. Emory requires all degree-seeking students to have health insurance. Rates for insurance coverage vary each semester. All immunization costs are covered under the Emory Insurance. Students will be automatically enrolled in the Emory University Student Health Insurance Plan. Exchange students may elect to decline this coverage by completing the Waiver Option form, if they can show proof of sufficient alternative coverage with access to covered healthcare in Atlanta.

ADVISING
Academic and other advising services are available through the Program Offices.

RECREATION VENUES
Emory has two state of the art recreation centers for its students. The Woodruff Physical Education Center is less than 5 minutes from the Goizueta Business School and includes an Olympic-sized pool, a rock-climbing wall, weight training facilities, indoor and outdoor running tracks, indoor and outdoor tennis courts, four basketball courts and numerous racquetball, squash and badminton courts. The Student Activity & Academic Center also offers an outdoor Olympic-sized pool, indoor weight training facilities and numerous outdoor tennis courts. All facilities are free to students with a Student ID.

STUDENT ASSOCIATIONS
Goizueta has over 20 student led associations grouped by academic focus or regional interest. Emory University clubs are available too.

ORIENTATION
There is a mandatory orientation for BBA and MBA exchange students hosted by the MBA Program Office, including sessions by the International Students and Scholars Services Office (ISSS).
For MBA students, the Career Management Center (CMC), a department at Goizueta Business School, provides career assistance to exchange students. Here are the services available to you while enrolled at Goizueta:

- Eligibility to attend on-campus company presentations (appropriate attire for company presentations is usually business casual)
- Access to CMC professional staff presentations, including those specifically for international students
- One career-related meeting with a CMC career coach
- Use of all business library resources
- If an employer requests to see Goizueta students from a specific country or students who speak fluently a specific language, we are happy to refer all enrolled Goizueta students, including those here on a one-semester exchange.

For BBA students attending the Goizueta Business School, the following career services are available:

- Handshake job posting service: Handshake.
- Career Services workshops and events.
- Employer information sessions and events.
- Online career resources through the business library including Vault, Wetfeet, and company research databases.
- Online career resource via BBA Career Management Center (CMC) and University Career Center:
  - BBA CMC
  - University Career Center

THE CAMPUS:

Nestled within the tree-lined residential campus of Emory University, Goizueta lies just a few miles from the heart of downtown Atlanta. With a population of more than 4.8 million people and the world’s busiest airport at its disposal, Atlanta boasts the third-highest number of Fortune 500 corporate headquarters.

The city attracts three-fourths of the Fortune 1000 with a thriving entrepreneurial and business climate that features names ranging from multinational corporations such as The Home Depot, The Coca-Cola Company and UPS to the vast array of small startup ventures found in our technology corridor. Emory is a non-smoking campus.

EMORY UNIVERSITY:

1. Established in 1836, Emory is a progressive teaching, research and service university, comprised of nine major academic divisions and featuring numerous centers for research and advanced study, as well as a broad base of distinguished affiliates.

2. Goizueta Business School was founded in 1919 and named after the former CEO of the Coca-Cola Company, Roberto C. Goizueta in 1994.

3. Led by President Gregory Fenves, the University has 15000 students and 3400 faculty members who represent all regions of the United States and more than 100 foreign nations.

4. Emory is part of a worldwide network that includes The Carter Center, EmTech Biosciences, and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Emory welcomed its first international student to campus over one hundred years ago.
The Roberto C. Goizueta Business School:

Goizueta provides a superior education in a highly engaged and close-knit community, featuring a distinctive and nationally recognized approach to leadership development and access to many of the world’s most recognizable names in business. The combination provides unique advantages that are unmatched by any other Business School.

Our globally recognized faculty is comprised of thought leaders who publish in top journals, have taught at the finest Business Schools around the world and have chosen Goizueta because it is a place where professors and students know each other personally. Our small class size fosters an environment in which a great deal of learning and professional development occurs through peer interaction. In this setting, every voice is heard, every accomplishment matters, and every single student has the ability to have a profound impact on the organization.

Furthermore, Goizueta develops leaders through a holistic approach that combines the academic foundation acquired in the business curriculum with a broad range of opportunities for personal maturation and professional growth. Lastly, Goizueta is committed to educating principled leaders; we believe that it is our responsibility as an institution to use our collective gifts to achieve not only success, but also significance. As individuals we are committed to the organizations in which we participate, the populations we serve, the communities in which we operate, and to society as a whole.

Our facilities are modern with academic buildings constructed in 1997 and 2005. We have a small sandwich shop in our building and plenty of study space. There is no smoking allowed on campus.
